

Daniel Novela Art Studio

A worth visiting art place in South Africa is the studio of Daniel Novela, who is one of the best black landscape impressionists that South Africa has ever produced. His studio is situated in Khuma between Klerksdorp and Potchefstroom and it takes just a one and half hour drive from Johannesburg to see this humble, international, highly gifted artist.

This is an opportunity for all serious art collectors: individuals, groups, executive corporate, art galleries and Museum Curators, art auction Managing Directors and many others. Among those who have visited Novela studio is the world renowned Mr Carlos Parreira, the current Bafana Bafana Coach, as well as Mr Robert Du Preez, the Managing Director of Mr Price, who all have made a good collection of Daniel's work.
